To whom it may concern,

I take great pleasure in recommending Chris Schellenbach for your employment. Chris was the post-production intern at Lighthearted Entertainment from September through November 2011. He worked directly for and with me on numerous development projects serving as an editor and assistant editor.

Chris contributed greatly to our projects with his technical skills and very much with his creative skills of editing. He has a great work ethic and the ability to help out on a team project or take on any task completely on his own. He was right there with us working hard to help meet deadlines and produce great completed projects. I am extremely confident that anyone working with Chris will immediately recognize him as a valuable asset to any project.

Please don't hesitate to contact me to further discuss Chris' skills and character.

Sincerely,
William Simmons
